Legislative Comment.

Senator Lambert's bill providing for the southern hospital for the insane to be established at Columbus passed the senate yesterday.

The committee appointed to inquire into the burial places of the ex-governor of the state reported yesterday that of the twenty-four deceased, five are buried outside the state. Of the nineteen buried in Indiana eleven have monuments to mark their graves and eight have unmarked graves.

Senator Shea's bill passed the senate yesterday abolishing the office of township librarian and providing for the transfer of township libraries in certain cases.

The bill providing for a uniform method of keeping county records was defeated yesterday in the house by being indefinitely postponed.

The waterworks bill authorizing cities to purchase water works plants introduced especially for Seymour's benefit passed both the house and senate yesterday.

A Common Danger.

If you ever had a cold which you permitted to "wear away" it may interest you to know it was a dangerous proceeding. Every cold and cough which is neglected paves the way for consumption, bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. Otto's Cure, the famous German throat and lung remedy, will cure any cough or cold and save you from consumption. Sold by all druggists. Prices 25c and 50c per bottle.

Fell From a Scaffold.

William Leslie fell from a scaffold in the press room at the Democrat office this forenoon breaking his left arm at the wrist. Dr. Hill and Dr. Greaselle were called in and set the arm and put on the bandages. The same arm was broken a few days ago.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case failed to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

An unusual number of resolutions calling for sidewalk improvements were adopted, anticipating a probable change in the Barrett law by the present legislature.

Bartlett presented a resolution for a concrete sidewalk on the south side of Brown street between Chestnut and P. C. C. & St. L. railroad. The date for hearing objections is March 9, the same as in each of the similar resolutions adopted last night.

DeGolyer offered four resolutions as follows:

To improve sidewalk on both sides of Brown street between P. C. C. & St. L. railroad and O'Brien street with concrete.

To improve sidewalk on north side of Cincinnati avenue between Indianapolis ave. and Broadway by paving with concrete.

To improve sidewalk on north side of Cincinnati avenue between Broadway and O'Brien street by paving with concrete.

To improve both sides of Vine street between Laurel and High street by paving with concrete.

Huber offered the following resolutions which were adopted:

To improve sidewalks on south side of Fourth street between Indianapolis avenue and Blish street by paving with concrete.

To improve south side of 5th street between Indianapolis avenue and Blish street by paving with concrete.

To improve north side of 5th street between Bill and Blish streets by paving with concrete.

To improve north side of 5th street between Indianapolis avenue and Broadway by paving with brick or concrete.

To improve north side of 5th street between Indianapolis avenue and Broadway by paving with brick or concrete.

To improve sidewalks on both sides of 7th street between Indianapolis ave. and Broadway by paving with concrete.

Shepard offered a resolution for the paving of north side of St. Louis avenue between Chestnut street and Indianapolis avenue with concrete which was also adopted.

The special committee to which was referred the plat of ground owned by John C. Wells, Sarah Wells and Cora Wells, and located in the south part of the city reported that they found the plat correct and recommended that it be accepted which was done by resolution. The addition is bounded on the north by Jackson street, west by Lynn street, south by McDonald street and east by Vine street.

In regard to a petition for converting a private alley in the 5th ward into a public alley, the city attorney stated that it should properly go to the city commissioners. By consent the matter was left in the hands of Breithauer who will make a report later.

The city treasurer's report for January showed a balance on hand at last report of $7,203.25; receipts during the month, 361.47; disbursements, 2,122.42; balance on hand, 5,442.31.

Claim of C. A. Saltmarsh for rebate of taxes was referred to finance committee.

A written statement from Frank Short and Phil Fetting that the contract for sidewalk in front of latter's property was accepted by the council.

In accordance with a resolution adopted by the city council some time ago propositions for lighting the city were submitted. The Seymour Gas Light and Coke Company submitted a bid to furnish 80 arc lights of 2,000 candle power, or $95 per light for all night lighting. For commercial lighting, arc lights $5 per month. Incandescent, 16 candle power, 1 to 4 lights, 60 cents per month, 5 to 9 lights, 50 cents per month, 10 or more lights, 40 cents per light; 32 candle power, 1 to 4 lights, 90 cents per month, 5 to 9 lights, 85 cents per month, 10 or more lights, 80 cents per month; dwelling houses, 16 candle power, 1 to 4 lights, 40 cents per month, 5 to 10 lights, 30 cents per month, 11 or more lights 25 cents per month. Meter rates were also given in the proposition. The company stated that their present machinery would be replaced with new and improved machinery.

The proposition of the Wayne Engineering & Construction Company was read and was so long that Clerk Jennings called for water three times while he was reading it, and finally surrendered it to city attorney Lewis to complete the job for him. This company made three different propositions to put in a plant which after ten years should become the property of the city the annual rentals to go towards paying for the plant. The city, under these propositions, would also bear all expenses of operating the plant and keeping it in repair. Under the first proposition, the amount the company would receive annually from the city would be $40 each for eighty arc lights, and $10 for each additional light above that number. These payments would be above what it would cost to operate the plant. Under their second proposition they would put in a little better plant and charge annually $42 each for eighty arc lights and $10 for each additional light. Under their third proposition they would put in a still better plant and charge a still higher rate. The rental under the last proposition would be about $3,700 annually.

The propositions of this company are carefully drawn and go into details, giving plans and specifications of buildings, machinery and everything else relative to an electrical. None but an expert would be able to express an opinion of much value on the propositions as a whole.

The propositions were referred to a special committee consisting of Bartlett, DeGolyer and Gibson to investigate fully and report back to the council in four weeks.

Binder asks that the iron crossings for gutters at crossing of Tipton and Chestnut street be looked after as soon as practicable.

Breithauer asked that concrete sidewalk be put down in front of property owned by Mrs. Doane and Miss Sarah Lewis situated on Poplar street below Laurel, in accordance with a resolution adopted last August. Bartlett objected, and then some compliments were exchanged between the two representatives of the 5th ward that made things look a little "blustery" in the council chamber for a few minutes, but no one was bodily harmed. The sidewalks, however, were ordered improved.

After a few other matters of minor importance were attended to the council adjourned at 10.40.

He Wasn't Proud.
The London Telegraph says that while a certain bishop was waiting for a train at Waterloo station, a porter, who often sees him into a compartment and shuts the door, in order that his lordship may be alone, came up to him in a state of excitement and asked:

"Your reverence, do you see that gentleman standing in the doorway over there?"

"Yes," answered the bishop.

"Do you know who it is?" continued the porter.

"No," said his lordship.

The railway man then whispered: "It's the 'Coffee Cooler,' your reverence. Oh, he ain't proud! He'll shake hands with your reverence if you like."

The "Coffee Cooler" is a noted colored prizefighter.

Ingrowing Nails.
To prevent an ingrowing nail a strip of cotton should be worked between the nail and the flesh, left large enough to cover the entire nail. A piece of cotton is then twisted into a long roll and placed on the other side of the nail groove over the sound skin. The space between is filled with lead nitrate, heaped up, and the larger piece of cotton folded over it, with more cotton outside, held in place with a moist bandage. This dressing is renewed every day, and in two or three the excoriation is reduced until the edge of the nail can be seen, and cotton inserted between it and the flesh beneath, when the nitrate can be discontinued.

THISTLE DOWNS.
Lighter and whiter than a flying flake of winter snows through was air winnowing. The thistle down the air and the journey's tale O'er meadows wide in vagrant wandering. No more shall they to earth reluctant cling As a moss lined and slowly sinking stone Left lying in an outer waste alone. Beside the edge of some remote morass, But high they toss above the fields new mown, Like disembodied spirits of the grass.

The drowsy atmosphere in lines opaque Leans to the sun, that fast is gathering The last faint dews, his fiery thirst to slake, While swallows dip, on ever restless wing. Across a dusty road the robins sing, And bumblebees upon the clover drone, While thistle down in airy spaces looms Along the skies in happy freedom pass, Joying after the manner of the wind, Like disembodied spirits of the grass.

—Ernest McGaffey.

TRICKS OF A MIND READER.

The Simple Explanation of an Apparently Difficult Feat.

"Speaking of telegraphy," said a gentleman who takes an interest in occult studies, "reminds of an incident which created a great stir some years ago, but is now about forgotten. A New York lawyer, who claimed to be able to project thought, had a committee of skeptics select a playing card at random and then wired a friend in San Francisco, asking him to think of a card and telegraph back what one came into his mind. The card selected was the five of spades and the reply was correct. All the parties were well known, and the experiment caused an immense sensation."

"The newspapers discussed it by the column, and it was exploited as a positive demonstration of thought transference, but as a matter of fact the whole thing was merely a clever trick. I had it afterward explained to me by one of the people on the inside. It had been prearranged with the San Francisco man that the cue to the right card was to be the wording of the message. The denomination was indicated by the number of words in the second sentence. If, for instance, it was an ace, the sentence would be only one word. 'Answer,' if a deuce it would be 'Answer immediately,' and so on.

"As it happened to be a five the message ran, 'Telegraph reply quickly as possible.' The suit of the card was revealed by the signature. Signing the name in full meant hearts, the first only meant clubs, the last name meant spades, and the initials meant diamonds. The system was beautifully simple, and the message seemed on its face perfectly innocent. It was carefully examined to find a hidden word, but baffled the investigators. As far as I know, the truth about the affair has never been printed."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Diplomacy.
One day a gentleman was holding a conversation with his wife in the presence of their 5-year-old son, and among other things mentioned was "diplomacy."

"Pa," said the youngster when a break in the conversation allowed him to interfere, "what does diplomacy mean?"

"Diplomacy, my son," said the father, "is this—doing exactly the right thing at exactly the right moment."

"Then I suppose I used diplomacy when I got out of the pantry yesterday, dad, did I?"

"What do you mean?" was the reply.

"Why," said the son, "I got into the back yard with that meat pie just at the moment ma caught the cat in the pantry and told you to drown her for thieving."—Pearson's Weekly.

Constant Coughing

Constant coughing is not only very annoying, but the continuous hacking and irritation will soon attack and injure the delicate lining of the throat and air passages. A simple cough is bad enough; but a chronic cough is really dangerous. Take advice and use the celebrated Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at once and be cured.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

Cures a Cough or Cold at once. Doses are small and pleasant to take. Doctors recommend it. Price 25 cts. At all druggists.

Mrs. Pinkham's Medicine Made a New Woman of Mrs. Kuhn.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 64,492]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I think it is my duty to write to you expressing my sincere gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried different doctors, also different kinds of medicine. I would feel better at times, then would be as bad as ever.

"For eight years I was a great sufferer. I had falling of the womb and was in such misery at my monthly periods I could not work but a little before I would have to lie down. Your medicine has made a new woman of me. I can now work all day and not get tired. I thank you for what you have done for me. I shall always praise your medicine to all suffering women."

—MRS. E. E. KUHN, GERMANO, OHIO.

"I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of your Sanna-dive Wash, also some of the Liver Pills, and I can say that your remedies will do all that you claim for them. Before taking your remedies I was very bad with womb trouble, was nervous, had no ambition, could not sleep, and my food seemed to do me no good. Now I am well, and your medicine has cured me. I will gladly recommend your medicine to every one wherever I go."

DIED.

GERRISH—Ansel Gerrish died Friday Feb. 10, at 5:10 a. m., at his home on the corner of Laurel and Carter streets, after a five years' illness with consumption. He was born at Paris, in Jennings county, Sept. 27, 1860, and came to Seymour in 1865 with his parents. Several years ago he moved to English where he united with the Odd Fellows lodge of which he is still a member in good standing. He is also a member of the M. E. church. He was married, but had no children. His wife and two brothers, Dr. Millard F. and Dr. Will E. G. rish, the latter a twin brother, survive him.

TUCKER—Charles H. Tucker died at 5 o'clock this morning at his home on South Chestnut street. About 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon he went home and sat down remarking that he had a very peculiar feeling. He listened to the reading of a letter from his daughter in Virginia, telling of the recent death of her husband after eight weeks of typhoid fever and then laid down stating that his left side was paralyzed. From that time on he was unable to speak. Dr. Hill was summoned but he found him unable to swallow even a dose of medicine. The deceased was about fifty-five years of age and has resided in this city about twelve years, having moved here from Medora to which place he came from the South soon after the war. He leaves a wife and several children.
